ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF
DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.
HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1901.
 Confession:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
 About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
 I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
 I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours,

Shining in Society.

BY HELEN R. THORNTON.

"AUNT JANE, have you heard the news?"
 "What news, my dear?" said the somewhat elderly lady, smiling up at her pretty niece.
 "That May Crawford has refused Horace Firth."
 "A very sensible refusal."
 "How can you say so? Why, all the girls are wild about Horace Firth. He is so handsome, so agreeable, and moves in the very best society. I think, for my part, she's a fool."

"Yes, a very sensible refusal," repeated Aunt Jane, decidedly. "There's an old proverb, my child, 'handsome is as handsome does,' and measured by that test, Horace Firth is anything but a desirable match. He shines in society, no doubt; but that is his only merit. He has no profession and very little money; no habits of industry, but immense personal vanity and great selfishness. I pity the girl who marries him."

"I suppose you think that stupid bore, Charley Nismes, whom you're always talking up, would make a better husband," answered the niece, pettishly.

"A thousand times better. Mr.
 Nismes is shy, which makes him often awkward in society, but among his intimates he is the best of company. You have never allowed yourself, my dear, to become acquainted with him. You took a dislike to him the very first evening you saw him, because, as you said, he looked as solemn as an owl. You prefer a frivolous fool, like Horace Firth. Ah! my child, it is sterling merit in a husband, not showiness and selfishness, that makes a wife happy. When your paragon, Horace, marries, if ever he does marry, he'll keep his fine speeches and gay manners for the world, while his wife will have to put up with irritability, neglect, and whims of all sorts."

"But Charley, I suppose, will be a lover to the last," interrupted the girl, sarcastically. "Marriage will transform the bear into a Prince Charming."

"You may sneer and laugh, my child, but many a true word is spoken in jest. That is just the transformation that will take place. Men, like Charley Nismes, love but few, but those they love intensely. You may envy the woman who wins him."

"I, envy the wife of that awkward fellow, with his face like a meeting house, and manners that are almost boorish!" And she laughed. "It's a capital joke."

Pretty Hetty Powers had some excellent traits, but she was wilful and she liked society too much.
 Home duties, or even home interests, had no charms for her. Her aunt, who acted as a mother to her, for her own mother was dead, had tried vainly to correct this fault. She sighed now, and dropped the conversation.

A few weeks passed. Horace Firth, rejected by Miss Crawford, began to pay court assiduously to Hetty Powers. The gossips said that, having failed to win the richest girl in the village, he was now trying his luck with the next weal-thiery one. But Hetty would not believe this. "The malicious old cats!" she said, speaking to her confidantes, "they want him for their own daughters. It is sheer envy. Beside, there's not a word of truth in the story about May Crawford. He never proposed for her, he never even was in love with her—I have it from his own lips.
 She suits better—such slow coaches as Charley Nismes. Though what he, or any one else, can see to admire in her, I can't understand."
 "They do say that May and Mr.
 Nismes are engaged, really engaged," said one of the listeners. "If so, her money will be a great help to the young lawyer, at least at the start."

"It's what he marries her for, I've no doubt," retorted Miss Hetty, sharply. "Still water, they say runs deep. I always told Aunt Jane that Charley Nismes was sly, and she'll believe me now, I hope."
 But Aunt Jane did not believe it. "Go your own way, my child," she said, when she found that Hetty was bent on marrying Horace Firth. "I can not prevent you from making what I believe to be a terrible mistake. But you shall not be unjust to Mr. Nismes. No mercenary motives influence him.
 He is too noble for that. You might, perhaps, have won him, if you had cared, for he knew you long before he knew May, and I am sure admired you at first. But you have chosen your path, my dear, and all I can do is to hope for the best. God bless you, at any rate, my darling!"

He was married. Aunt Jane's prognostications were not long in being verified. At first, indeed, everything seemed sunshiny to the young bride. Numerous parties were given in her honor, at all of which her husband shone pre-eminent, the handsomest, gayest, most admired man in the room. But when this season of festivities was over, Hetty found quite a different state of things. Horace was incapable of a quiet, domestic life. He could not live without excitement.
 He began to spend his evenings again with the gay young men of his bachelor days. He played cards, drank freely, lost money, and came home out of humor. In vain Hetty strove to win him to better courses. Too late she realized what her aunt had forewarned her about. As a last resort she tried to persuade him to engage in some business, thinking that employment would wean him from his idle associates. She even made over her little fortune to him, in order to furnish the capital to begin with. But it was of no avail. In less than three years every penny of it was lost, or gambled away, and her husband was more worthless than ever before.

Very different was the married experience of May Crawford. Mr.
 Nismes had won the heart of the heiress by his culture and intelligence, and he kept it by his nobel-ness of soul and his devotion. If ever a man loved it was Charley Nismes. Not a wish of his wife but he anticipated it. If he could have got millions he would have poured them into her lap. As it was, he won fame, and with that he surrounded her, as with a halo —for he soon made his mark in his profession. He was chosen to the legislature, and afterward to the national congress.

The other day, the Hon. Mr.
 Nismes was called on, at Washington, to see if he could identify the body of a poor, miserable wretch, who had died in a fit in a low eating house. In his pocket was a letter, postmarked at the village where the Hon. Mr. Nismes lived; and this had led to the inquiry.

"Yes! I know him," said the member of congress. "His name is Horace Firth?"

ONLY MAN

Who Ever Kidnapped a United States President is Dead.

T. C. Coleman, aged 77, for years one of the leading merchants of Louisville, died last week at his country home in Bullitt county.

Mr. Coleman was widely known as the only man who ever kidnapped a president of the United States.
 When he first came here from Ireland he ran on the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers, and was on many palatial New Orleans steamers.
 When Zachary Taylor was elected a lot of New Orleans citizens planned to charter a steamer, fit it up in proper style for a president and escort Taylor as far as possible by river toward Washington, where he was to be inaugurated. Young Coleman knew of the plan, and being in command of a steamer, took it out hours ahead of the Taylor boat. He stopped at Taylor's plantation.

"Do you want me?" yelled Taylor.

"Yes," responded Coleman.
 The president elect and his negro valet hustled aboard and were received by Coleman with such style that he did not know he had got on the wrong boat until after the trip. Taylor entered into the joke heartily, but the trail of the New Orleans delegation on the way back was marked by profanity.

Health and Beauty.

A poor complexion is usually the result of a torpid liver or irregular action of the bowels. Unless nature's refuse is carried off it will surely cause impure blood; pimples, boils and other eruptions follow. This is nature's method of throwing off the poisons which the bowels failed to remove. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are world famous for remedying this condition. They stimulate the liver and promote regular and healthy action of the bowels but never cause griping, cramps or distress. Safe

Another Rush For Gold.

Dawson advices, via Seattle, of Nov. 26, tell of a great stampede that is going on to Mayo creek, in the Stewart River district. Prospectors wandering in the country late in the summer discovered evidences of several years' development on Mayo creek, but no one around, the operators evidently having gone out for the winter.
 Cabins well stocked with provisions and tools were found. The news started the stampede and now the creek is staked from end to end, the original locators having failed to record their claims, and will return to find that they have no holdings in the district.
 It is not known in Dawson how rich the pay dirt is, the sole reason for the rush being the mysterious developments.

Will Pray It Out.

A peculiar state of affairs obtains in the social circle of Grayson, Ky. The United Daughters of the Confederacy sent out invitations to a ball, to be held there December 27. The members of the M. E. Church, South, were holding a revival meeting at the time, and intended to close it last week. A committee of the sisters waited on the young ladies and requested them to withdraw their invitations. This they declined to do, and now the church people have decided to continue their meetings until the 28th. They say that they will pray the dancing spirit out of the town.

Significant Sparing of Sampson.

The spirit of Admiral's Benham and Ramsay is amply shown in the fact that while they insist on his vacillation they have not a word to say about the orders from Sampson to "hold your fleet at Cienfuegos," nor about the withholding of vital information necessary to enable Schley to promptly discharge his duty. That would react on quarters for which these admirals have a tender interest.
 Against this partisan view Dewey's terse verdict expresses the opinion of the most successful sea fighter of the age. The head of the navy does not consider it necessary to chop logic with his conferees on

THE HERALD.

SPENCER COOPER, Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.
THURSDAY, December 26, 1901.

WITH the New Year a new era will dawn for Hazel Green. For the protection of our educational interests every law-abiding citizen is pledged to morality and decency and all efforts will be exerted to maintain the law. Pistol packing, whiskey drinking, loud and lascivious language and their kindred evils will no longer be tolerated. Peace and harmony is the object, and if we are to maintain our prestige as an educational center, they must and shall prevail. The new officers of the town enter upon the discharge of their duties with the assurance that they will be morally and materially supported in their efforts to enforce the law. The habit of shooting upon the streets will be suppressed at any cost, and THE HERALD is requested to kindly forewarn everybody of what may be expected if the laws are violated. In a spirit of good will to all and malice toward none the authorities announce these things. If accepted in a like spirit all will be well. But the law will be vindicated.

The lobby opposed to the Nicaragua Canal bill knows that it cannot be defeated by votes in either branch of congress and will resort to all sorts of parliamentary tricks to prevent its reaching a vote. Its tricks will, however, be useless unless it has assistance from senators and representatives, and those who assist it would better say good bye to public life before they start.

The republican leaders in the house have now come around to the position the democrats occupied at the last session of congress, the advocacy of the repeal of the remaining Spanish war taxes, and have announced that a bill for that purpose will be prepared after the holidays.

SENATOR HOAR'S idea of giving federal courts jurisdiction over lynching is the newest of the many fool schemes to try to change human nature. The average man with good red blood in his veins would participate in the average lynching if he belonged where it occurred.

WHEN the democratic senators declined to put any obstacles in the way of the ratification of the new treaty with England they doubtless surprised many republicans. They certainly pleased many democrats who are anxious to see the canal started.

WE pay at the rate of $85,000,000 a year for the little more than $5,000,000 a year of Philippine trade we get, while European nations pay nothing for the more than $18,000,000 a year they get. These figures do their own talking.

THE republican majority in congress is said to be hatching a scheme to double the pay of senators and representatives. It would be more creditable to make a little better bluff at earning the pay they now get.

ANTI-TRUST bills have been dumped into the congressional hopper in the usual quantities, but nobody expects that the republican majority will allow their friends, the trusts, to be hurt.

THE republicans of the house made quick work of nullifying a portion of the recent decision of the supreme court by jumping through a Philippine tariff bill.

NEARLY six thousand deaths in the prison pens in South Africa during October and November, nearly half of them children. That is the way "the most highly civilized nation" is making war on the Boers.

MR. ROOSEVELT seems to find the presidency a long, sweet season of dinner-giving, but many of his congressional guests make no secret of their preference for a little more office-giving on the side.

SINCE Andrew Carnegie tried to inveigle the U. S. government into a limited partnership of fifty years with the steel trust his donations are suspiciously examined by many.

OBSERVERS of national politics are wondering what show Mr. Roosevelt will stand in 1904 if he continues to snub and spit upon the machine workers of his party.

MR. ROOSEVELT has not found it necessary to have a "mouthpiece" in either branch of congress, although a number of gentlemen are willing—aye, anxious—for the job.

THE country seems to think that Rear Admirals Benham and Ramsay paid entirely too big a price to keep Long in the cabinet.

MORE than one president of the U. S. has hoisted motto, I-am-better-than-my-party, but not one of them ever made it stick.

ADMIRAL DEWEY'S vindication of Schley was by no means the first time that he has cut loose from the navy department.

"I thoroughly agree with Dewey in the mighty chorus that swept across the country with the sound of thunder.

Those republicans who have been up against the Roosevelt cold blast found the cold wave decidedly tropical.

Committee's Report.

First—That the third class certificates should be abolished.

Second—That the county be made the unit of taxation.

Third—That the school district be given the authority to vote on the question of levying a tax to build school houses.

Fourth—That the trustee system should be remedied as follows:

1. That all the schools in the county be under the control of a county board of education, composed of the county superintendent and one member elected from each magisterial district, by the voters thereof, the members of the board after the first election, to be elected at the same time that county officers are elected, and their term of office to be four years.

2. Each member shall give bond for faithful performance of his duties, and shall receive $3.00 per diem for his services while the board is in session, the number of days to be limited; said services to be paid for out of county funds.

3. Said board to have authority to let all contracts for building and repairing, to purchase all material for same, to purchase all furniture, apparatus, and supplies and to employ all teachers.

4. That this board have one local director in each school district for the signing of reports, and attending to incidental matters while school is in session.

Fifth—That the state superintendent be required to pay but 20 per cent of the tuition fund on the first of October.

Sixth—That the county superintendent's annual report should reach the state office not later than the first day of August.

Seventh—That the date of the June examination for common school graduates be the second Friday and Saturday in May.

Eighth—That the sum of $500 be placed at the disposal of the state superintendent with which to defray his expenses in visiting county institutes, and other educational meetings, and that a sworn statement of his expenses be published in his biennial report.

Note—The above articles will be discussed at the meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association in Louisville, December 28, at 10 o'clock, with a view of framing a bill to be presented at the next session of the legislature.

ATTENTION, LOT-OWNERS Sidewalks Must Now Be Built!

There are a number of sidewalks in the town only partly built, or badly built, which must be completed according to specifications on file in the Secretary's book. The matter of building walks, or pavements, has been kept quiet, pending the decision in the McNabb case in the Court of Appeals. Now, as it has been shown that the Board of Trustees has sole control of the building of sidewalks, it will be expected that all walks be put in first-class condition at once. There will be no "dilly-dallying" any more. Property owners who have been ordered to build sidewalks may call upon the clerk, C. B. Rose, for specifications.

What are Humors?

They are vitiated or morbid fluids coursing the veins and affecting the tissues. They are commonly due to defective digestion but are sometimes inherited. How do they manifest themselves? In many forms of cutaneous eruption, salt rheum or eczema, pimples and boils, and in weakness, languor, general debility. How are they expelled? By Hood's Sarsaparilla which also builds up the system that has suffered from them. It is the best medicine for all humors.

A Writer of the "Hoosier School."

With General Lee Wallace and James Whitcomb Riley as its deans, the "Hoosier School" of poets and authors is assuming a prominent place in the field of American letters. The late Maurice Thompson and Charles Major and Booth Tarkington have each contributed and are still adding to its fame, and now a comparatively new name is written besides these: Frederick M. Smith. Mr. Smith is a native of Indiana, who confesses that he has "been trying to learn to write haven't appeared oftener is not so much his fault as the editors'! One of his first stories to attract general attention was "The Blue Gown that wouldn't fit," which came out in The Ladies' Home Journal last August. Since then he has contributed a short romance called "Christine" to the same magazine, and an interesting note about this tale is that it is not wholly a "child of invention." The material for it was gathered in Germany, where the writer finished his education.

Mitch Campbell will leave this week or next for Charleston, Ill., to make his future home. He has hired to a man named Newman for the year at $20 per month, with house and garden furnished and cow to milk during time. Also a team to do his hauling.

Cruelty to Children. Mother's Worm Syrup never fails to destroy and remove worms in children. It is cruel not to administer to them whenever there is need.

Barnum's Monkeys

"All well—all happy—lots of fun." That is the regular report from the monkey cage of Barnum's Circus ever since the keepers began dosing the monkeys with Scott's Emulsion. Consumption was carrying off two thirds of them every year and the circus had to buy new ones.

One day a keeper accidentally broke a bottle of Scott's Emulsion near the monkey cage and the monkeys eagerly lapped it up from the floor. This suggested the idea that it might do them good. Since then the monkeys have received regular doses and the keepers report very few deaths from consumption. Of course it's cheaper to buy Scott's Emulsion than new monkeys—and that suits the circus men.

Consumption in monkeys and in man is the same disease. If you have it or are threatened with it can you take the hint?

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St., New York. 50c and $1. all druggists.

Hazel Green Academy Opening.

The second term of Hazel Green academy will open on next Wednesday, January 1st, 1902. A large enrollment is expected, prospects for such were never better. All pupils living within Hazel Green or near, who expect to attend the academy this winter, should enroll Wednesday. There will be room and accommodations for more than three hundred. Every department will be well cared for; every teacher works for the pupil's interest. The expense is very reasonable.

Special work for teachers or applicants for teachers' certificates, will begin with the opening of the term and will continue throughout the two terms of twenty-two weeks. Teachers should attend this school this winter for there will be many changes in the "school law" made by the "coming assembly." One especially of interest to teachers—"the dropping of third-class certificates."

The school of "telegraphy and railroad accounting" should be full of pupils. There is now a strong demand for telegraph operators and railroad accountants. The commercial department will be full. There is a pressing demand for book-keepers and stenographers. One of the young men of the commercial department has already secured a position, and will leave this week to begin his duties. He goes to Cedar Bluff, Va. Others who qualify themselves, may secure like positions; another pupil in the same department has been asked to become an assistant teacher. Who will be the next?

January the 16th, 1902. Academy Chapel, Hazel Green, Ky. Admission 10c.

Topics for sermons at the Christian church on Sunday will be, at 11 a. m., "Christian Work," and at 6:30 p. m., "Walking Before God." Would it not be just the thing for everybody to attend church services on the last Sunday in the year? That would give all a good start for the new year. The attendance at the Christmas entertainment on Wednesday night is proof sufficient that the people of Hazel Green can get out from home.

K. P. Nickell, H. Clay Brown, John S. Cisco and W. C. Scholl of the academy are spending Christmas in Hazel Green, rather than at their homes. There seems to be special attractions for the young men here among the young women of the town. They are making good use of the vacation along the special line of their "hearts desire" while the "sun shines," for after the 31st, all must subside till June 4, 1902. Boys, can you stand it?

James A. Rose, Hardin H. Hurst, B. C. and Edgar Howard, Millard Conlee, Edward McGuire, Newton Duff, Walter Perry, Glen Salyer, Grover Nickell, and many other pupils of Hazel Green academy, have taken advantage of the vacation and are visiting at their homes.

Mrs. Ellen Swango and daughter are visiting Mrs. Swango's father and mother, J. E. Quicksall and wife near Ezel, from where they will go to their new home at Millersburg, and expect to be domiciled by Jan. 1, 1902.

Human beings need the sunshine as much as plants do. Don't be afraid of its causing freckles, for we have the best of authority that it does not do anything of the kind.—January Ladies' Home Journal.

Taylor Johnson on Tuesday sold to H. F. Pieratt his house and lot in Hazel Green, for $550. The property is located in Dickville, near the public school, and contains an acre of ground, with good dwelling, out houses, &c.

PLAY THEM OVER AGAIN.

BY SAM WILSON.

Come here, dear wife, let us and I Live o'er youths scenes again, Lets laugh at age, at farrows deep That on our brow remain. Lets play that we are young once more: 'Twill fill our hearts with joy. You be a winsome country girl, And I a farmer's boy.

Lets sit beneath the spreading boughs, The elm tree's gladsome shade, Where first we met where first we loved, While birds above us played, And joined in concert to our songs. Sweet gems from love's refrain, When heart met heart 'Twas O, so grand! Lets play it o'er again.

'Twas not the jewelled eyes of thine Which made the rapture start, But something grander, fairer still Than beauty could impart; 'Twas O, a gem that's stamped within Thy heart so free from stain; You know the rest. Come now, dear wife, Lets play it o'er again.

And there's the little village church Not far away it stands. They say the parson's living still Who joined our hearts and hands; Sweet echoes of the wedding march, And smiles of friends remain, Those happy scenes of long ago— Lets play them o'er again.

HAGAN DISTILLING CO., LEXINGTON, KY.

We claim to be the Lowest Priced Whiskey House. We really sell whiskey as low as $1.10 per gallon, and mind you: distilled whiskey—not a decoction of chemicals—but of course it is new and under proof. Our "Mountain Dew" 5 year old whiskey is a liquid joy! It is actually produced by honest far fields in the Mountain Section of N. C., by the old time hand process. Every drop is boiled over open furnace wood fires, in old style copper stills, in exactly the same way as distilled by our grandfathers a century ago. First rate whiskey is sold at $1 and 50c per gallon, but is not any better than "Mountain Dew." It is the best in the world and must please every customer or we will buy it back for gold—and the Peoples National Bank of Winston, N. C., will tell you our guarantee is good. To more fully introduce "Mountain Dew," we offer either three or five gallons (in plain sealed boxes), at the special price of $1.55 per gallon, cash with order. Positively no larger amount shipped. On future shipments we will require the usual price, viz: $2.95 per gal. Express prepaid to all regular customers. We have branch warehouses in Denver, St. Louis, and Cincinnati, but all orders and remittances (in stamps, cash or by check, etc.) as well as requests for confidential price list must be addressed as follows:

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition, beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

RATHER MIXED.

Nephew to Himself, Slater Is His Own Pa's Brother-in-Law.

Wm. Slater, a saloon keeper of Findlay, Ohio, was married last week at McKeesport, Penn., and finds that he has become his own nephew, his father's brother-in-law and is also his own uncle. His stepmother has suddenly become his sister-in-law.

Slater's father is Matthew Slater, a wealthy retired hotel man of McKeesport, and a few years ago he took unto himself a second wife. She had a young sister, Miss Nellie Boyle, who came to live with them. Miss Boyle and young William Slater at once fell in love, but there were parental objections on account of the general family mix-up that was foreseen. The young people waited, but were not to be thwarted.

Two years only served to ripen their love, and last week they were married. And they were married without the consent of their father-in-law, brother-in-law and their stepmother-sister-in-law. They have received the parental blessing.

An Evangelist's Story.

"I suffered for years with a bronchial or lung trouble and tried various remedies but did not obtain permanent relief until I commenced using One Minute Cough Cure," writes Rev. James Kirkman, evangelist of Belle River, Ill.: "I have no hesitation in recommending it to all sufferers from maladies of this kind." One Minute Cough Cure affords immediate relief for coughs, colds and all kinds of throat and lung troubles. For croup it is unequalled. Absolutely safe. Very pleasant to take, never fails and is really a favorite with the children. They like it.

The jury in the Jean Couch case at Dixon, Webster county, last week returned a verdict of guilty, and fixed his punishment at 20 years in the penitentiary.

WomaAn's Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation" were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gall stones had formed and she constantly grew worse. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney remedy. Cures Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite. Try it. Only 50 cts. Guaranteed. For sale by J. T. IT CURES WHEN ALL ELSE FAILS!

READ THE TESTIMONY OF TWO WELL KNOWN CITIZENS OF WOLFE.

Mr. Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky.: I purchased some of the Vitae-Ore of you in the latter part of March, and after taking about a half-pint of the Vitae-Ore Elixir my nerves were as steady as when I was 16 years of age, and I am now past 75. For more than a year I had been trying all the patent medicines and nostrums I could hear of to build myself up, but nothing did me any good until I used Vitae-Ore, which my wife brought me from your house. After using it a week I went out and did three days' hard work as I have done in 25 years, and I was not more fatigued than I was 25 years ago over the same work. It is the greatest medicine in the world, and I want everybody in the mountains to know what it did for me so they may try it. Hoping every one who has that tired feeling incident to old age will buy Vitae-Ore of you and give it a fair trial, I remain, thankfully yours for putting me on to this remedy.

JAMES LACY.

I can vouch for every word Mr. Lacy says in the above. I am his wife and bought the medicine of Mr. Cooper for him, though I did not have much faith in it, because we had tried so many things that did no good. I have also used Vitae Ore, and am stronger and in better health than for years, which I attribute to its use.

(MRS.) SOUTHEY LACY.
